

A hand-drawn sketch of a login form on a smartphone screen. The form is contained within a rounded rectangle. At the top, there is a small rectangular box for a logo or profile picture, with a diagonal line drawn across it. Below this, there are two input fields: the first is labeled 'Usuario@dominio.com' and the second is labeled 'contraseña'. Below the input fields, there are two buttons: 'Iniciar sesion' and 'Crear Cuenta'.
